Welcome to 's-Hertogenbosch

The capital of the province of Noord-Brabant. City of Hieronymus Bosch The townsfolk of 's-Hertogenbosch always welcome visitors to their city with open arms, and not surprisingly 's-Hertogenbosch has been awarded the title 'Most Welcoming City in the Netherlands' four times in a row! This city is famed for its charm and hospitality.

Spending twenty four hours in the city is not enough – there is so much to see and do: The old historic market square, its quaint buildings, Hieronymus Bosch Art Center and the famous St. John's Cathedral are all within walking distance.

's-Hertogenbosch has a wide range of food outlets, restaurants and lively pavement cafés. In fact, you are spoilt for choice if you are looking for a great evening for dining out! The city was voted 'Flavour Capital' of 2010. So come along and find out why 's-Hertogenbosch really deserves this title. The ancient streets of its city centre contain many attractive restaurants and cafés where you can spend a great evening trying various culinary delights.
